The easiest way to get a better understanding of Gateway Education's 'Foundations' product is to come in and see it for yourself...

The School Principal (and a senior teacher) Sally Easton (London, United Kingdom)

The Managing Director (and a senior teacher) – Darren Harrison (Sunderland, United Kingdom)

...are always happy to give assessments of new or old students and give parents plenty of feedback on how they feel about the students' level. You can also get a good idea about our fantastic materials by popping into our offices and classrooms.
